Dear Admiral McConnell:

I am writing to accept your agency's request for a postponement of a scheduled July 14 briefing from the NSA's Inspector General regarding various allegations of money laundering in Arkansas in the late 1980s. I propose that the briefing be rescheduled for 10:00 a.m. in my office on July 21.

Based on representations from your agency, it is my understanding that today's briefing was postponed because the intelligence community needed additional time to research back files. It is also my understanding that NSA requested a rescheduling because the Central Intelligence Agency strongly preferred a joint briefing on the issues at hand. In that context, it is my expectation that NSA will have reviewed all relevant agency documents by next Friday and be prepared to fully respond to my letter of July 11. I appreciate your attention to this request.

Sincerely

SUMMARY

- It truly is a full moon!

PURPOSE: Provide status on Congressman Leach's request for information regarding allegations of money laundering in Arkansas in the late 1980s (reference Congressman Leach's letter of July 11, 1995).

STATUS:

- I have touched base with the proper people (See Tab A).

- I can find no substance, even by liberal stretch, to suggest any NSA connection.

- This is a rehash of the FORBES editor inquiry of May 1995 (See Tab B) which itself is a rehash of some of the same and related allegations previously put to rest in a Special Counsel investigation concluded in March 1993, e.g., PROMIS, NSA/CIA/Justice, Hayes, et al (See excerpts, Tab C) and NSA GC memo (See Tab D).

- I told LAO I will be available to meet with the Congressman tomorrow, or any other time, if required.

Very respectfully,

Vice Admiral John McConnell, USN
 Director
 National Security Agency
 Ft. George Meade, MD 20755

Dear Admiral McConnell:

(b) (3) - P.L. 86-36

I am writing to seek your agency's help in verifying or laying to rest various allegations of money laundering in Arkansas in the late 1980s. For that purpose, I would request a briefing from NSA's Inspector General on Friday, July 14 before 1:00 p.m.; if that is not possible, sometime on Monday, July 17, would also be convenient. (Briefing scheduled for 21 July at 10:00.)

The reports I have in mind have appeared in the general press and, sometimes in sensational form, in more narrow-gauged outlets, including the Internet. They speak of secret foreign bank accounts held by prominent people in Arkansas, special software to monitor bank transfers, an Arkansas-centered network of banks formed to launder money, and similar tales. I would like to determine whether there is any substance at all to these stories.

Specifically, I would like your Inspector General to tell me whether the Agency:

- (1) knows of any secret bank accounts held by U.S. citizens domiciled in Arkansas at any time between 1988 and now;
- (2) is aware, directly or indirectly, of any efforts by computer hackers, U.S.-government related or otherwise, to penetrate banks for the purpose of monitoring accounts and transactions;
- (3) knows of or has participated, directly or indirectly, in efforts to sell software--notably versions of a program in use at the Justice Department called PROMIS--or clandestinely produced devices to foreign banks for the purpose of collecting economic intelligence and information about illicit money transfers;

(4) is cognizant of any attempts by Systematics Inc, an Arkansas-based electronic data processor that is now a division of All-tell, to monitor or engage in the laundering of drug money or proceeds of other illegal activities, notably those conducted through Mena, Arkansas;

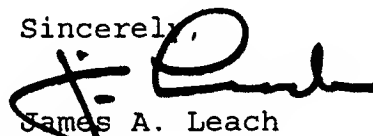

(5) can provide information about Charles Hayes, a businessman in Nancy, Kentucky, who claims to have been a CIA operative in Latin and Central America, among other places;

(6) knew of or was involved in, directly or indirectly, any covert activities by the U.S. government or any private parties (the so-called "private benefactors") in or around Mena in the late 1980s;

(7) had any contractual or other relationship with the late Adler Barriman "Barry" Seal in the 1980s or knew about his activities in connection with Mena.

I would appreciate your help in shedding light on these matters.

Sincerely,

James A. Leach
Chairman
